Twenty-three head from the Herd of Park E. Salter

IRRESPECTIVE of the quality of the offering sold by this breeder last May, an event which placed him well toward the front in Shorthorn affairs in this section, his contribution to this joint sale will be greeted by visitors as being more attractive individually, more properly conditioned for sale, and possessing greater breeding worth. When his cattle are seen sale day it will be freely conceded that it must be a strong herd that can withstand the strain of such a draft. Many of his entries are widely and favorably known, such as the universally admired female champion Lady Supreme, and others that have been drafted as the top cattle from both his show and breeding herds. Provided she falls into the right hands this is one heifer that every man who comes out on the circuit next fall will have to consider. Missie's Last represents the opportunity seldom offered to buy a tried sire. His reputation through the southwest as a real breeder is most favorable. In the Lookabaugh sale a cow that rivals all others for the top female of the auction is his daughter. It was Snowbird's Sultan that so ably succeeded his illustrious twin brother Fair Acres Sultan in service at Watonga, and it was his get that was outstanding in the Get of Sire show at the Kansas National Exposition of 1920. Two of the four head are in this sale, including Miss Snowbird's Sultan that is unquestionably one of the grandest matrons that has been sold in years. She will make an ideal foundation cow in the first herd of the land. Some man with ideals and visions of the future should take her into his herd to found a tribe of his own. Emblem Junior is entitled to go at the head of some good herd. He has much to recommend him. Imp. Bapton Corporal stands today as one of the most prominent sires in use in the west. One of his heifers in this sale is particularly attractive, a show prospect in fact.

The cows that have been chosen are the kind that would be exceedingly valuable to Mr. Salter in his breeding program, being the kind in every instance that he should retain.

The listing of such an array further emphasizes an already conceded fact—that Park E. Salter is a valuable addition to the Shorthorn breeding ranks.

WALTER L. MILLER,
Of The Breeder's Gazette.

Bapton Corporal brought to the herd through his illustrious ancestry the essence of the work of Cruickshank and Willis, breeding that inspires confidence and adds distinction to the herd. The get of his sire, Hoar Frost, are well known in this country. Among his importations brought here was Lady Dorothy, Grand Champion Female at the International Live Stock Exposition of 1916.

In conformation he possesses the qualities I particularly sought in a sire—an abundance of breed character, a great loose hide carrying a heavy coat, a compact carcass well balanced at both ends, and a carriage that denotes vigor and style. His use in the herd has been extremely gratifying, and the first of his results are listed in this sale, to demonstrate what he can do as a sire.

His show record in the southwest stands as follows: First in class and Junior Champion at the Kansas National in 1917; first prize two-year-old in the same show in 1918; Grand Champion at Wichita and Oklahoma City in 1919. At the same time his calves won the leading calf herd and get of sire awards. Grand Champion at Denver, Wichita and Forth Worth, 1920. Am retaining a Bapton Corporal calf for one of my future herd bulls.

FAIRLAWNE ESTATE OFFICE
Shipbourne, Tonbridge, July 19, 1918

Mr. Park E. Salter,
615 Fourth National Bank Bldg.,
Wichita, Kans.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Cazalet has handed me your letter of the 29th ult., for which I am much obliged. I am more than pleased to hear "British Emblem" has done so well. I enclose a few particulars asked for.

I consider this family of "Goldies" to be one of the best in my herd. The dam of your bull, Gipsy Countess 3d, has been a great prize winner, including First and Reserve Champion at the Scottish National, First Oxfordshire, First Somersetshire and second at the Royal shows. She is the shortest cow I ever saw on the leg, very thick in her flesh, very even all over and certainly the best of breeders. In 1915 she bred me a grand heifer calf which I sold at my annual sale for 300 grs., last year she gave me a dark roan bull calf which will be sold this year, and I consider him the best I have to offer.

Gipsy Boy, the sire, was also a Goldie of red color, very short and thick fleshed. He was First and Champion at the Northern Show held at Aberdeen. Gipsy Countess 2d, the granddam, was also a good breeder. She bred me the bull, "Fairlawne Curfew," which I sold in my 1916 sale for 560 grs. The great granddam is a wonderful cow, having just calved a grand heifer calf in her 16th year. I am sure the bull will prove to get real good calves of the right type.

Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you on some future date.

Yours faithfully,

C. L. FOX.

Never in the history of the breed has the need of real herd bulls been so imperative as now. New herds being established in great numbers, the extreme quality of females which so many new men are buying, as well as the effort on the part of old breeders to maintain and improve upon the quality of their production, all combine to make the demand acute, with resultant high prices.

However, the history of the trade reveals few instances where a proven sire has brought his actual worth. The disposition of breeders seems to be to prefer an untried prospect and in the light of this experience it is quite probable that Missie's Last, tried, proven and in his prime, will bring no more than a young bull of like promise. However he goes and whatever he brings, he will be a valuable addition to his new home. His get will be some of the real attractions of this circuit of sales.

Bred to Emblem Jr. 833753 March 24, 1920.

It will be a serious moment for many a breeder when Lady Supreme enters the ring. The showman that is not so fortunate as to have her in his own string must consider the competition which will inevitably come from her in other hands. Her show career has been an almost unbroken line of successes, culminating in grand champion honors at the last American Royal, and late gaining the same distinction at Denver, Wichita and Fort Worth this spring. She is in splendid condition to carry on for next fall, and her chances for winning never were better.

Aside from her value as a show cow, she takes valuable breeding into the herd into which she may go, being a half sister to the great Village Supreme through her sire, and carrying through her dam the blood of bulls that has done much for the breed in the southwest.

Twenty-seven head from the Whitewater Falls Herd of J. C. Robison

THE Robison entries provide this sale with a double attraction, in that he is selling both imported and home bred cattle. The imported cattle have been selected as the most saleable, viewed from every angle, of the more than fifty head that arrived in this country only a few weeks ago. His venture was based on his desire to bring into his own herd some particularly valuable breeding cattle, and at the same time to distribute an equal division of the good ones with other breeders that would serve in improving the herds of the southwest.

Listing as he is the Duthie-bred cow, Sweet Fragrance, just ready to calve, and the other splendid types of breeding matrons that sell most of them with calves dropped since arrival in this country, there can be no question but that he is driving out of his importation into the sale ring the cream of his purchases. And these cows are being sold just ready to breed to the sires at the head of the herds into which they go.

Many of these entries do not give full evidence of their actual value, on account of not being given the time to recuperate from their long and hard journey, but this means one more advantage in favor of the purchasers. The young bulls listed in particular show the effects of the shipment, but in them will be found signs of valuable development.

In view of the rise in Shorthorn values that has taken place in Great Britain during the past few months, those men who have contemplated adding some imported selections to their herds will do well to consider seriously the cattle offered in this sale. The offering of that number of imported cattle at so westernly a point marks a new phase of the Shorthorn development in this section.

The cattle out of his own herd, bred in this country, are in more proper sale condition and will meet with a ready reception. They are mostly bred and open heifers belonging to such popular tribes as the Marr "Clara," Marr "Roan Lady," Cruickshank "Mysie" and others.

Mr. Robison used marked discretion in the selection of a stock bull when he put Dale's Renown at the head of his herd. He acquired the prestige of an Avondale-bred sire, backed by blood that lends confidence to his performance. He not only springs from a tribe of feminine ancestry that is endowed with much sentiment based on achievement, but he inherits through his first few dams the blood of history making sires. Kelly's Archer was by Village Prince and out of a dam by Scottish Archer, which the herds of Great Britain of all time have produced few better sires. This cross is again infused through Scottish Prince, a grandson of Captain of the Guard, and out of a dam likewise by Scottish Archer. His calves have been very pleasing. His service goes with the American-bred females in the Robison division of this auction.
